BERLIN AGREES TO DEMOBILIZE CIVIC GUARDS

Takes Steps Toward Fulfilling Terms of Peace Treaty.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
San Remo, April 20.—(Associated Press.) The premiers of the allied powers in conference here, although busy with the problems of the Turkish peace treaty have found time to resume the conversation begun Sunday afternoon upon what warning or ultimatum shall be sent to Germany respecting the execution of the treaty of Versailles. It does not appear, however, that their consultations have led them beyond an agreement in principle that something of a mandatory character must be sent to the Berlin government, differences in view as to the exact nature persisting.

Premier Lloyd George, it is understood, is holding tenaciously to the view that economic penalties shall be imposed if Germany does not conform to the treaty's terms. The French contention, on the other hand, is declared to be that it would be more useful to cease sending food supplies into Germany and put a stop to her industries by shutting off raw materials than to occupy a few districts with the allied troops, until Germany changed her attitude.

Nitti Supports Lloyd George
From the standpoint of international order in Germany, the French statesmen also consider that limiting food and trying to prevent the factories from working would be more dangerous than restricted occupation. Premier Nitti supports Mr. Lloyd George. That is the situation on that question this morning.

The council continued its examination of the Turkish treaty at the formal session.

An official statement issued by the premier says:

"This morning the conference discussed and approved the financial clauses of the Turkish treaty. The conference afterwards discussed the Armenian territorial question, especially the frontier question. Before adjourning the conference took up the question of Batum."

GET ITALY'S APPROVAL

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Paris, April 20.—All the allied powers concerned now have approved the principle of collective representations to be made to the Berlin government regarding the execution of the treaty of Versailles and the charged affairs of the several allied nations will probably be instructed to call at once at the Wilhelmstrasse and deliver the declaration of Italy's approval of the representation which had not been immediately forthcoming was received today.

TO DISBAND CIVIC GUARDS

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Berlin, April 20.—Disbandment of German civic guards, demanded in the allied note of March 12 has been decided upon by the Berlin government. In a note to General Nollet, head of the allied commission of control here, the government states it is taking this step "under pressure exerted by those who ignore actual facts."

Assertion is also made that there was no idea of using the civic guards for military purposes. "The government," it continues, "cannot but recognize but that the stipulations of the peace treaty compel it to deny to the population every possibility of protection which in the present circumstances is essential for the maintenance of Germany's internal security and fulfillment of the terms of the treaty."

In conclusion the government says it will examine what permissible organizations can serve to this end, and it will maintain the local protective character of such forces, avoiding centralization of military organizations.

Removal of American Dead to Start Sept. 15

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, April 20.—Removal of the American dead from within the fighting zones in France for transportation to the United States will begin after Sept. 15 under an agreement between the American and French governments. Bodies of men buried outside these zones now are being moved to this country.

The war department in announcing the agreement said the terms of the understanding limited the return of bodies to those whose removal to America had been specifically requested by the next of kin.

SOLDIER'S BODY MAY BE SHIPPED TO ENGLISH HOME

Relatives of Pvt. R. N. Tanner Arrived in Morrison.

Captain O. F. Schiffli, of Camp Grant, arrived in Morrison Saturday to make arrangements regarding the disposition of the body of the young soldier, Robert Tanner, who met his death by jumping from the east-bound passenger, No. 22, near Union Grove, Thursday morning. While Captain Schiffli was conferring with R. A. Reynolds, the undertaker at Morrison, an uncle and cousin of the soldier, T. J. Jones and son, Bruce Jones of Atlantic Ia., came into the store. A telegram from the camp officials at Denver had notified them of the tragedy.

Mr. Jones' statement throws light on the previous history of the young man, which has hitherto been shrouded in mystery. He stated that his nephew, who was but 18 years of age, was born in England and had been in this country two years. He made his home with his uncle up to the time of his enlistment in the medical corps at Denver, last July. Mr. Jones said that the young man was healthy and of a cheerful temperament, and that a letter received from him a short time ago indicated that he was in good health and spirits, and was anticipating his discharge from service in the summer. His uncle knew of no tendency toward somnambulism, but could advance no other theory to account of the young soldier's rash act. He could not believe that the body could be that of his nephew until he had looked upon his face. Another relative, W. R. Jeffries, of Chicago, arrived in Morrison later in the day. The relatives left in the afternoon for Chicago and Captain Schiffli for Camp Grant.

The body is being held at Morrison, awaiting further orders, but it is probable that it will be shipped to the home of the young man's parents in England, which the war department has suggested doing if such is the desire of his relatives.

To Arrange Entry Dixon Elks Grand Lodge Session Fete

A special committee from Dixon lodge of Elks went to Chicago this morning to spend the day in making arrangements for the accommodations for the local "Bills" during the national convention which will be held in the Windy City early in July. This body will also investigate and arrange for the entrance of an illuminated float to be entered in the parade representing Dixon lodge. A special train will take Dixon Elks and members of their families to Chicago and back during the convention.

Plans are also being formulated for a booster trip to Ottawa in June, at the time of the annual state convention of Elks. It is expected that automobiles, about fifty in number will make the trip to Ottawa for the state gathering. The cars will be decorated and Dixon lodge will probably be numbered among the contending cities for the 1921 state convention.

Robert Ross of Lexington, Neb., is running as a Democratic candidate. "United States Senator G. M. Hitchcock is the only other Democrat whose name appears on the ballot."

William Jennings Bryan, is seeking a place as a delegate at large and has announced in advance that if elected he would not support Senator Hitchcock, owing to the latter's announced views on the subjects of light wines and beers.

Both the Bryan and Hitchcock forces have rival tickets for the delegate candidates in the field.

Delegate candidates representing Wood and Pershing also are being voted upon but all of them have said they would abide by the preference vote of the people.

Kansas Gov. Orders Prosecution of All Involved in Lynching

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Mulberry, Kas., April 20.—This village was agog with excitement today over the events of late yesterday when a mob estimated at 1,000 or more persons stormed the local jail, dragged forth an unknown negro, identified as the assailant of a young white woman and hanged him to a telephone pole.

Governor Henry J. Allen, has instructed Attorney General Richard J. Hopkins to take any steps necessary in bringing about the prosecution of those involved.

Efforts were being made today to identify the negro, who, with B. F. C. Workman, 16 years old, was captured by a posse near the state line and later identified by the young woman as the man who attacked her.

Workman, who told the authorities he was from Springfield, Ill., was not molested by the mob. He denied being implicated in the attack and his story was confirmed by the young woman, according to the authorities.

Reports from the young woman's home today were that she would recover.

ASSOCIATED PRESS' TOAST TO RESTORED HEALTH OF PRESIDENT

President Noyes Defends A. P. in Open Season for Critics.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
New York, April 20.—Members of The Associated Press met at the Waldorf Astoria hotel here today to elect five directors, four advisory boards and auditing and nominating committees.

At a luncheon in connection with the meeting President Frank B. Noyes of the Washington Star, proposed a toast to President Wilson, saying, "In offering a toast, the formal wish for 'health' is usually a little significant. With us this year, in our only toast it is our custom to offer, the case is profoundly different for, very earnestly, very hopefully and very sincerely we drink to the health, the full restored health of the President of the United States."

Open Season For Critics

"Every season of the year is an open season for the critics of The Associated Press" said Mr. Noyes. "We are accustomed through long experience to the railings against our service of the uninformed, the notoriety seeker and the common or garden liar, who charges bias or suppression in the report of The Associated Press."

"Every newspaperman, every informed person, knows how preposterously untrue these charges are—who ever may make them. To you, I need not explain that our very organization was in response to the demands of the newspapers that their news service should be owned and controlled by themselves and themselves alone, that it should be their servant and not their master, that it should give an adequate and truthful record of the day's work happenings free from bias and from opinion or propaganda. While laying no claim to omniscience, service has been singularly successful in attaining the objects we sought and the line 'By Associated Press,' has become a hallmark of accuracy, whether the event recorded is the election of a president, the signing of an armistice, a decision of the supreme court or the death of the Pope."

Special Tribulations

"While at all times this open season continues, every four years comes a special period of tribulation. When the Presidential campaign rolls around every candidate for the nomination and the resulting presidential candidates and every manager of every such candidate finds clear evidence in our report of bias against every candidate mentioned—until after the election and then all agree that The Associated Press has been conspicuously fair. This has been our experience in the past and there is every indication that the present campaign will be no exception."

Mr. Noyes explained that while every one of the candidates will have the support of individual members, The Associated Press will continue serenely indifferent as to the outcome of the nominating conventions and elections, contenting itself to supplying its members with the news as it happens, playing no favorites and punishing no enemies.

"The report of The Associated Press does not grow or simply come into being without effort," continued Mr. Noyes. "Every line, every word is the product of an individual worker of whom hundreds toil and adventure daily to supply a fair picture of the world's happenings. Every one of you know that at bottom these charges of bias are charges against anonymous workers, if we are betrayed. And the betrayers, if these charges are true, are recalcitrant to the trust we have placed in them."

"You know them, you know them all, division chiefs, bureau chiefs, editors, correspondents, reporters, operators, working tirelessly, faithfully, efficiently, intelligently."

"You know that these men are the salt of the earth, the pride of our profession and neither your opinion nor mine can be fitly expressed on an occasion of this sort of the ignoramus, the blatherskites or the liars who defame them."

The following railroads have issued ultimatums designating dates after which the strikers who have refused to return will lose their seniority rights:

Chicago & Alton; Chicago, Burlington & Quincy; Monon; Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul; Elgin, Joliet & Eastern; Grand Trunk; Illinois Central; Indiana Harbor belt line; Soo Line and the Ickel Plate.

The Chicago Yardenmen's Association has called a meeting for tomorrow morning "to settle the strike." Federal Judge Kenesaw M. Landis, Charles Clynne, district attorney, and all brotherhood and railroad officials are invited to be present.

STRIKE SITUATION

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, April 20.—Coal shortage growing out of the unauthorized rail strike is approaching serious proportions here, according to Fred Upham, head of the Consumers' company. It may be necessary to ask for federal control of coal distribution, he said.

"Industries in Chicago are being crippled by the coal shortage," Mr. Upham said.

Warrants for the arrest of 25 new leaders in the Chicago Yardenmen's Association and the United Engineemen's Association were issued today on the order of Charles Clynne, United States district attorney.

These men took the places of the 27 strike leaders now imprisoned, when they were arrested.

From his cell in Will county jail, at Joliet, Ill., John Grunau, president of the Chicago Yardenmen's Association proposed a mass meeting to settle the strike.

Traffic conditions continue to improve and there is no prospect of coal shortage, according to Railroad General Managers' Association. The statement says that 568 train crews are now at work in the Chicago switching district as compared with 526 yesterday; 418 switchmen have returned to work within the district; 1420 cars of live stock were brought into the stock yards and 1,299 carloads of coal were brought into Chicago today.

The movement of eggs into Chicago was more than six times normal today. It amounted to nearly 10,000 cases. More than three times the normal movement of butter was brought into the city. The cars of butter and eggs has accumulated on the lines outside of Chicago during the strike.

The following railroads have issued ultimatums designating dates after which the strikers who have refused to return will lose their seniority rights:

Chicago & Alton; Chicago, Burlington & Quincy; Monon; Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul; Elgin, Joliet & Eastern; Grand Trunk; Illinois Central; Indiana Harbor belt line; Soo Line and the Ickel Plate.

The Chicago Yardenmen's Association has called a meeting for tomorrow morning "to settle the strike." Federal Judge Kenesaw M. Landis, Charles Clynne, district attorney, and all brotherhood and railroad officials are invited to be present.

Later R. W. Robinson, representing the Chicago Yardenmen's association, filed with the board demands similar to those made by the New York and St. Louis organizations.

At the conclusion of Mr. Doak's presentation of the trainmen's case, the spokesman for the striking employees moved that their demands be given precedence as emergency disputes within the meaning of the board's rules, but the board adjourned until tomorrow without taking action.

GRUNAU'S PROPOSAL.
By Associated Press Leased Wire
Joliet, Ill., April 20.—From his cell in Will county jail where he is being held under a commitment from the United States district court, John Grunau, president of the Chicago Yardenmen's Association today made the following proposal for settlement of the strike:

"That a mass meeting be called to meet in Carman's Hall, Van Buren street, Chicago—or a hall of at least 15,000 capacity—to which shall be admitted members of the Yardenmen's Association, committees from the Manufacturers' Association of Chicago, general managers of the railroads and members of the senate committee of inquiry, the differences between the railroads and employees to be threshed out in this open meeting."

Grunau, From Cell in Jail, Offers New Proposals.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, April 20.—Principal demands of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen as presented today to the railroad labor board by Vice President W. N. Doak include:

A wage increase of from 41 to 47 per cent with a minimum of $150 a month and time and a half for overtime. Sundays and holidays. A basic month of 26 days with a uniform lunch period of 20 minutes and a uniform "dead head" rule, providing that time consumed in going to and from work be considered as working time.

The trainmen comprise baggage-men, brakemen, flagmen, yard foremen, helpers, switch tenders and yardmasters below the rank of general yardmaster.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, April 20.—Formal written demands that the railroad labor board give assurances of the award of a "living wage" to railroad men and that employees now on strike would be returned to work without loss of seniority or prejudices were filed with the board today by Edward McHugh, representing the strikers in the Metropolitan district of New York, and James Eubanks of the St. Louis Yardenmen's association.

Spokesmen for the railroad brotherhoods objected to the filing of the demands but Chairman Baron said any body of men had the right to file complaints with the board, but it was for the board to decide whether they were such as the board was authorized to hear.

For Separate Recognition.
The St. Louis Yardenmen's Association asked a separate recognition before the board as a distinct organization claiming that its members were not properly represented by the recognized unions.

Mr. Eubanks said that if the board would assure him that the men's demands would be acted upon speedily he would put a message on the wire which would send the men in the St. Louis district back to work in three hours. Mr. McHugh reiterated that the men of the New York district would remain out until work was received from him that the board would act on their complaints.

The board permitted the filing of the complaints after it had held a short executive session, then proceeded with its first public hearing on the general wage demands of the two million railroad workers over the country.

Laid Down Board Policy.
Chairman Barton laid down the policy that cases would be heard in the order in which they were filed except where some dispute should become of such pressing importance as to demand precedence.

W. N. Doak, vice president of the Brotherhood of Trainmen was the first spokesman for the unions, presenting the trainmen's case as it was outlined to the bi-partisan board which failed to reach an agreement here three weeks ago.

Representatives of strikers from New York, St. Louis, Chicago, Philadelphia and other parts of the country were present.

Later R. W. Robinson, representing the Chicago Yardenmen's association, filed with the board demands similar to those made by the New York and St. Louis organizations.

At the conclusion of Mr. Doak's presentation of the trainmen's case, the spokesman for the striking employees moved that their demands be given precedence as emergency disputes within the meaning of the board's rules, but the board adjourned until tomorrow without taking action.

Corn Showed Some Weakness Today

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Chicago, April 20.—Considerable weakness showed itself today in the corn market. According to some observers the situation was summarized by the statement that the trade had apparently discounted factors of strength. Commission houses did most of the selling and at least temporarily there was an absence of aggressive support. Initial prices, which varied from the same as yesterday's finish to 1 1/4c lower, with May 1.70 1/4 and July 1.66 to 1.66 1/2, were followed by a moderate general setback and then by rallies all around.

Oats were governed by the action of corn. After opening unchanged to 1/2c up, including July at 89 1/2c to 89 1/2c, the market underwent a general sag and then reacted somewhat.

Provisions weakened with grain and hogs. Most of the business was in lard.

Subsequently, bullish domestic wheat crop reports together with reiteration of gossip that export of wheat from Argentina might be embargoed led to a fresh advance in corn values here. There was also evidence of renewed anxiety about the smallness of the amount of corn in store here. Closing prices were nervous, 1/2c to 1 1/2c higher with May 1.73 to 1.73 1/2 and July 1.66 1/2 to 1.66 1/2.

CELEBRATED 90TH BIRTHDAY—

William Rink, one of our youngest oldest citizens, celebrated on Monday evening his 90th birthday at an elaborate dinner, such an one as is usually served in this hospitable home to celebrate anniversaries. Thirteen were seated at the table. Of these three were daughters, Mrs. Ida Hackett, of Chicago; Mrs. Bodwell, and Miss Clara Rink, of Dixon; and two were sons, William, Jr., and Frank. Mrs. Stensland, a granddaughter, and son, of Chicago; Mrs. Frank Rink, son, and daughter, of Dixon, completed the party. Many flowers and cards were sent by friends in Dixon, St. Louis, and other places. Mrs. Stensland brought from Chicago 90 wonderful roses of the choicest variety one for each year. The house was a bower of flowers of which Mr. Rink is very fond. Mr. Rink enjoys the very best of health. He is a man of fine personal appearance and physique and carries his years with an ease which many a younger man might envy. He enjoys life and sees the best in everything and everybody. He came to Dixon when he was twenty-one and was actively engaged in business here for many years.

Four Coaches of R. I. Train Were Derailed

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Rock Island, Ill., April 20.—Four coaches of passenger No. 5 west bound, on the Rock Island lines, due here at 2:30 a. m., left the rails at Marquette, Ill., 61 miles out from Chicago, at 1:20 a. m. today. The accident is reported as having been caused by the track washing out under the train during the cloudburst.

Local division railroad officials report no one injured in the derailment as the train was proceeding with caution over the piece of track threatened with washout when the track spread under the train. Telegraph poles were broken down by flood water destroying wire communication and at 8:30 a. m. only meagre accounts of the accident were available. All traffic is suspended until both east and west bound main tracks at this point have been repaired and the coaches re-railled.

Forty feet of track on the Bureau-Peoria line, at Chillicothe, Ill., 20 miles out of Peoria was also reported washed out.

NO ONE INJURED.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Chicago, April 20.—No one was injured when the coaches left the tracks, officials of the Rock Island line here said today. The train went on its way without the four coaches.

Urge Reinstatement of Chicago Firemen

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Washington, April 20.—Reinstatement of union firemen at the quarter-master's depot in Chicago, who were replaced April 1 by soldiers from Camp Grant, was recommended to Secretary Baker today by the department of labor.

Protests of the firemen against increased hours without proportional increase in pay led to the replacement of the fire unit, the department's report said, adding that reinstatement was recommended "in view of the facts and in order to avert publicity that will betray the government as attempting to lower standards by decreasing wages through increasing hours."

RAIL LABOR BOARD GETS STRIKERS' PLEA

The American Federation of Labor for its opposition to the "insurgent" switchmen's strike was given by the biennial convention, in session here.

FEVER HAS SET BACK

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Chicago, April 20.—Strike fever among railroad employees suffered a setback. Thirty thousand railway clerks and 8,000 freight handlers in the Chicago district announced today their decision to permit hearing of their wage demands by the railroad labor board at Washington.

The district council of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, which includes freight handlers, voted last night against an unauthorized walk-out after receiving an appeal from James J. Forester, head of the labor board and a member of the labor board to await legitimate adjustment of their grievances.

Roads Join in Plea

Assurance was given by the Association of Railroad Managers that the roads would join with the brotherhood in asking the labor board to grant the men increases. The railway clerks who receive a minimum of $87.50 a month, ask an increase of 12 cents an hour. The freight handlers demand an increase of 12 cents an hour and restoration of wage differentials between truckers, callers and stokers, abolished when the government took over control of the roads. Freight handlers receive 42 cents an hour.

Four Leaders in Jail

Freight movement in the Chicago district, continued to increase today and elsewhere in the middle west and far west traffic conditions were returning to normal. Four Chicago strike leaders, including John Grunwald, president of the Chicago Yardmen's Association, were in jail pending hearing on charges of violating the Lever act. United States District Attorney Cline announced that warrants would be issued for strikers who assumed the places of the 25 arrested leaders.

Warrants were out for 27 persons indicted yesterday by the federal grand jury in Los Angeles in connection with the strike.

Another Strike Threatened

Possibility of another serious blow to the railroads in the Chicago district loomed today with a threat that 100,000 members of the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way and Railroad Shop Laborers would leave their work on April 28 unless their demands for a temporary increase of $1 a day and time and a half for overtime after eight hours were granted. Chairmen of the northwestern district of the organization which embraces an area within a radius of 500 miles

SOME BETTER DOWN EAST

By Associated Press Leased Wire

New York, April 20.—New York was slowly untangling itself today from the snarl of congested railway traffic resulting from the unauthorized

Washington, April 20.—President Wilson met with his cabinet today for the second time since his illness interrupted the regular schedule of meetings last fall. At one last Wednesday, when a special meeting was called to consider the railroad strike cabinet members went to the President's study in the white house instead of to the regular cabinet room in the executive offices. It was said that various matters, more or less of a routine nature, were considered.

The meeting lasted for an hour and a quarter. It was said that the railroad strike situation and international problems affecting Mexico and Germany were mentioned only in a general way.

"Folks Would Pester Me"

Somebody asked an old Missouri store-keeper why he didn't put a small advertisement in the local newspaper to advertise a "home blend" of coffee that was particularly good.

"I don't wanta," he replied lazily. "If I did, folks would pester me all the time to show 'em my goods."

Thus did an old Missouri store keeper pay unconscious tribute to the business getting value of advertising. He missed a lot of business, of course, but there's another side of it.

Lots of people who really wanted this particular brand of coffee were unable to get it because no one ever told them where it was to be had.

You know yourself that it would take you twice as long to shop if there were no advertisements to guide you in your buying. You wouldn't know where to start. You'd miss a lot of good values just because no one ever told you about them.

The man who advertises is glad to have you "pester him" to show you his goods. Don't miss the advertisements. They will save you money.

GEORGETTE CREPE BLOUSE
Special at $5.00

Now don't expect these to last long at this price, for nowhere else will you find a value to compare with this. We advise an early visit to get one of these for they won't be with us long. Silver gray, flesh, white and black. Special, $5.00.

Maybe a coat of paint and an odd nail or two will put a piece of porch furniture in perfectly good shape and save buying new.
Look the chairs and seats over with an eye to repair rather than discard. It isn't at all difficult to paint chairs one's self. Choose a good hard-finish paint, the salesman at the paint shop can give valuable advice, put on an old dress and start. Once started one has to finish.
Nearly all the mixed paints are too heavy and need thinning, so purchase some turpentine with the paint. If possible do the work outdoors, for the amateur painter is sure to find paint abnormally splashy stuff and the odor of fresh lead and linseed oil and pigment and turpentine a bit overcoming at such close range.

MENU FOR TOMORROW
Breakfast—Cereal with dates, toast, coffee.
Luncheon—Corned beef hash, steamed brown bread, chocolate cookies, tea.
Dinner—Bean soup, broiled pork chops, candied sweet potatoes, asparagus salad, sponge cake, canned peach es, coffee.

MY OWN RECIPES
When the fruit trees are in blossom canned fruit has a rather flat taste, so beware of serving it at just that time. It may be imagination to a large extent. After the flowering season is over the fruit seems to taste just as usual.

CORNER BEEF HASH
2 cups chopped corned beef
1 cup chopped cold boiled potatoes
1 small onion
1-4 teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon fat
Melt fat and add finely minced onion. Add meat and potatoes well mixed and a little water. Cook over a slow fire until a crust is formed on the bottom. Fold like an omelet and serve on a hot platter. Be sure all bits of fat or gristle are removed from meat.

CHOCOLATE COOKIES
4 tablespoons butter
1/2 cup sugar
2 tablespoons grated chocolate
1 tablespoon milk
1 egg
1/4 teaspoon vanilla
1/4 cup nuts
1 1/4 cups flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
Cream butter and add sugar slowly. Melt chocolate with milk. Add to butter and sugar. Mix baking powder with flour. Beat egg. Mix thoroughly. Let stand an hour. Roll very thin on a floured board, cut with cookie cutter and bake in a moderate oven.
After cudgeling my brains over what to serve for dessert I know just how Eve felt when she stole the apple.

NO CHARGE TO EXCHANGE LIBERTY BONDS

Uncle Sam makes no charge for the exchange of temporary into permanent Liberty Bonds.

The temporary ones may be surrendered through banks and trust companies and forwarded by them to the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago. The new bonds will be delivered at the expense of the United States. This official announcement was made by the Federal Bank of Chicago that they do not have to pay anything to the banks for exchanging the bonds for them. The exchange of bonds started March 15.

In the Seventh Federal Reserve District there are outstanding $502,000,000 of the third loan bonds, dated May 9, 1918, and maturing September, 1928. To this issue there were close to 3,450,000 individual subscribers. On and after April 1 the Reserve Bank expects to have sufficient supplies of the permanent bonds of the first and second 4s and the first and second 4 1/2s to go around. Of these four classes there are outstanding in this district about $518,000,000 worth.

The first 4s represent conversions of the first 3 1/2 per cent Liberty Loan bonds to the 4 per cent bonds of the second Liberty loan. There is every advantage in converting these to the 4 1/4 per cent bonds of the third Liberty loan, as they retain their original maturity dates. The first 4s have been without an interest coupon since last December; the second since November. This interest will be fully adjusted on the exchange into permanent bonds.

FINAL EXAMS.

Along about this time of year most American school pupils start looking forward with dread to that period of storm which precedes the calm of summer vacation—the season of “final examinations.”

They may find consolation and encouragement in the following sentences from a school survey report just issued by the United States Bureau of Education:

“That the formal examination is no criterion for determining ability is a conclusion abundantly supported by an examination of the school careers of men who have become famous. For example, Thomas A. Edison never could pass his school examinations, and when his teacher reported that it was a waste of time for him to attend school he was taken out and never returned. Charles W. Eliot, while president of Harvard University, once remarked that he would not have been able to pass the entrance examinations of his own university. Henry Ward Beecher stood sixty-fourth in an examination in grammar.”

Formal examinations—while still the chief method of grading pupils in many, if not most, schools—are rapidly falling into disrepute among educational experts. The government report quoted above declares that such examinations, while having a definite place in school procedure, are a poor basis for determining a pupil's fitness for promotion.

“Final exams,” as all pupils know them, are condemned on these scores: They lead to “cramming”; to undue worry and nervousness; to working with the sole aim of passing; to putting a premium on mere memorizing, instead of on understanding and learning, and to a vast amount of unprofitable labor for teachers in reading papers, keeping records and making out reports.

“A system which is dominated by the formal examination will inevitably stress memory work, and thereby to a dangerous degree teaching tends to become formal and mechanical and not truly educative,” the government's experts say.

There is food for serious thought for every parent, teacher and school official in these statements. Are your children or your pupils really learning, or just passing? Are they developing their ability to think and reason, or simply cramming their memories with isolated and easily-forgotten facts?

THE WAR RAGETH.

Most human beings are concerned with the high cost of living, baby's newest tooth, or where shall we spend our vacation? But not so with the world's astronomers. They are waging a war all their own, with none on the side lines nor in the grandstand, and none to care who wins the argument.

Astronomer Solá de Barcelona, Spain, announced the discovery of a planet. Its position is given as “right ascension 12 h., 25 m., 12 s., declination plus 15 degrees. Its daily motion was “right ascension minus one minute, declination plus one minute.” All of which is more or less Greek to non-astronomers. That, however, is not the cause of the war.

Other astronomers insist this is no newly discovered planet. They say it is No. 99, one of the long list of small planets previously mapped. Considerable time, and many learned debates will be hurled broadside in deciding if this is No. 99 or a new planet. When it is decided this little old world will wag along just as it has been doing these many years.

Most human beings will continue to concern themselves in the cost of living, baby's newest tooth, or where shall we spend our vacation?

POOR PROPHETS.

“Ten years from now everybody will be living in hotels.”

That is the prophecy of the American Hotel Men's Association, which adds:

“It is merely a matter of evolution.” The high cost of living, burglars and inability to obtain household help, hotel men believe, will bring about the revolution in home life.

If there ever was a more leaky prediction made, it was done before they began recording prophecies in type.

They may be good hotel men. Indeed, most of them have proven their ability in that line. But as prophets? They couldn't bat .014 in the Tall Grass League.

Never will even a majority of mankind live in hotels. Never until man and woman have so changed that they no longer care for a home of their own, a bit of yard for the kiddies to play in, and that homey atmosphere impossible to reproduce in a hotel.

Few persons now live in hotels. They live there only because they have no homes to live in. Other hotel dwellers don't “live” there. They merely “stop” there. It is a handy stopping place, en route to or from home. And that is the best that can be said about it.

As a protest against the high cost of shoes Vienna fashionables will go barefooted. That's all well enough but what about the high cost of trousers?

The American Museum of Natural History says the eagle is about to become extinct. That one on the dollar has lost his old time vigor.

Holland promises to take precautions “on the spot” to prevent the escape of Wilhelm. That will do if the spot is just back of the ear.

The promise that soft coal will be higher may be accepted as proof that increased wages didn't make it hard for the operators.

A trade journal declares that Russia produces 25 per cent of the world's oats. This estimate is very low if wild oats are included.

Arms captured from Bolshevik forces prove that munitions makers have recognized the soviet government if statesmen won't.

It is not surprising that doughboys increased in height .23 inches while in France. Everything else went up in the meantime.

The only explanation is that builders and shippers are hurrying to get their money spent before prices come down.

Russia says she is ready to pay gold for machinery. Can't she offer some commodity that is worth something?

The story that China and Japan have almost agreed concerning Shantung means that China has almost agreed.

Having the League meet in Rome doesn't tickle the Jugo-Slav. He is afraid it will do as the Romans do.

An ultimate sales tax will get the same result as an excess profits tax and save the big fellows a lot of book faking.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton

TRICKY JACK FROST
Now, Jack Frost was a tricky fellow always, but nobody minded his pranks a lot in the fall and winter. People said, “There's a time and a place for everything, and Jack Frost is all right in his place.” When he painted over newly cleaned windows with his fantastic patterns, they were quite patient with him (of course they were lovely pictures, I must admit that) and when he cracked water pitchers, and fastened down pump handles and made little creeks stand still, they humored him and hardly fussed a bit. “It's winter and he has a right to do as he pleases,” they said.

But when spring was just over the hill, and Jack Frost was supposed to gather up his strings (for tying pump handles) and hammers (for breaking water pitchers) and paint brushes (for marking ferns on the windows), and then skedaddle in the opposite direction, most generally his disposition got mean. Oh, so mean I can't tell you! He didn't want to go, and he'd linger and linger, and after folks had their straw hats all dusted off for warm weather, and the parlor curtains down to clean house, they'd get pretty cross he poked around so long.

He'd hide, you see, and when people thought he'd gone for good, he'd jump out at them, and blow down their neck, and nip at their fingers. No wonder they got out of sorts!

But the worst of it was, he was always snooping around on the lookout for the first robin and the first pussy willow, so he could scare them away. If he once let the robins and the willow buds get a chance, he knew he couldn't stay around much longer. And he didn't want to go!

That's what Jack Frost was doing when Nancy and Nick came along in their green shoes, on their way to the Fairy Queen's palace. He was pinching the fairies with the willow buds!

SUCH IS LIFE

Now is the hour when the old silk hat comes from its attic habitat. When old Sam Jones in awful state goes down to meet the candidate, And in oration to present The nation's future president. Then to the attic, back in store, The silk hat goes for four years more.

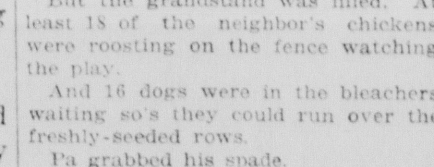

Pa has been doing considerable spring training. Getting ready for the Big Game. He began on seed catalogs. Wrestled with last year's garden tools, getting 'em in shape. Found out all the seeds he had had saved from last summer were lost. So he bought some more. And he was ready for the initial game.

There being no mayor near to toss up the first ball, that bit of ceremony was dispensed with.

But the grandstand was filled. At least 15 of the neighbor's chickens were roosting on the fence watching the play.

And 16 dogs were in the bleachers waiting so's they could run over the freshly-seeded rows.

Pa grabbed his spade.

Like the good pinch-hitter he is, Pa took his time getting up to the plate.

He batted well, turning over at least six spadebats before he sat down to rest.

Ma was doing well as a receiver. She received all the little jobs, such as hoeing the cloids and raking the ground, and sticking in the seeds, and covering 'em up.

Pa is great for teamwork. Also he's an excellent coacher. There never was a moment when he couldn't tell Ma better way of planting 'em than what she was doing.

Little Willie was the newest recruit. Just breaking into the garden league. Figuratively speaking, he was breaking in, though, as a matter of fact, he was stronger for breaking out.

Little Willie was supposed to do a lot of things, but he early exhibited a running ability that took him out of the game.

Ty Cobb never went down to first faster than Willie slid out the backyard when Pa wasn't looking.

After doing only two-thirds of the work, Ma was called out of the game to go and get supper ready.

Then it was a one-man team, like Washington, and Pa was the Cicotte of the garden.

And, great credit should go to Pa. For, although he was caught napping, he made a clear home run when Ma intimated supper is ready—are you ever coming in and eat it before it gets cold.

Why acquire the habit? Why not quit, if already acquired? Why not encourage others to quit? Is it not a brotherly, Christian act to do so?

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

The Tobacco Habit

The tobacco habit is universally recognized as a bad habit; it is certainly injurious, physically, mentally and morally; the pleasure it is supposed to afford is largely a delusion and costs more in penalties than it is worth. Genuine pleasure, with no “sorrow therewith,” is not obtained by violating the laws of nature, hence—

Why acquire the habit? Why not quit, if already acquired? Why not encourage others to quit? Is it not a brotherly, Christian act to do so?

Tobacco A Deceiver
The following quotation from President G. Stanley Hall, of Clark University, is a terrific indictment of tobacco.

“The basis of all interdependence is the effort to secure, through drugs, the feeling of happiness when happiness does not exist. There are many drugs which cause this pleasure and in proportion to the delight they seem to give a warmth or vigor or exhilaration when the real warmth or vigor or exhilaration does not exist. Tobacco gives a feeling of rest which is not restfulness. One and all, the drugs tend to give the impression of a power or a pleasure or an activity which we do not possess. One and all their function is to force the nervous system to lie. One and all the result of their habitual use is to render the nervous system incapable of ever telling the truth. One and all their supposed pleasures are followed by a reaction of subjective pains as spurious and unreal as the pleasures which they follow. Each of them, if used to excess, brings in time insanity, incapacity and death.”

From an English magazine—“She caught at the table edge with one sharp breath with nothing more than one sharp breath.” With one sharp breath—only that and nothing more.

Confessions of a Bride

(Copyright 1920, by The Newspaper Enterprise Association)

“Where have they gone? What has become of them?” I cried.
“Probably the unexpected has happened this time,” said my husband.
“They have escaped, my dear, or they have been released. Beastly luck, to miss them.”

“Beastly!” I repeated.
“But I must admit that I'm enthralled with my new quarters as compared to the rat-infested hole we have just abandoned, my love. The prospect is better too.”

“It looks to me as if you and I might have to stay here quite a little while,” said I. “But we'll be comfortable, I assure you, for a time. They have left a hard loaf—and some cheese—and claret, I notice. Thank goodness the party weren't rescued—before I fell for that trap. Bob! Just think. Never to know—all my life—what had become of you!”

I reached out a clinging hand. It seemed as if we never could stop exclaiming over our wonderful good fortune, but at last we grew practical and my husband explained how he happened to be shut up in the dungeon.

“An attack was made on the hacienda by a gang of Mexican outlaws, he explained. “They demanded two ranchers, two Americans, who were good for an enormous ransom. They claimed that they were the original and only owners of the two Americans, by right of capture. They claimed that some government soldiers had filched their captives and shut them up in the hacienda and they had come to get them back. My dear, they gave the inhabitants of the hacienda a mighty stiff scare, I can tell you. But they didn't get the Americans.”

“Spence and Archer?” I exclaimed. “Those two men are certainly in luck! They were safe enough in the secret chamber, I can tell you!”

“And for once, in spite of your good intentions, a little out of luck, my dear. Who do you suppose was the leading bandit?”

I named the chief of all the Mexican brigands.

“Wrong. ‘Twas our old and honored friend, Morrison!”

“The detective?” I gasped.

“Sure thing!” Bob asserted. “Morrison! Forever on the job! Leading his own men. His handbills were a camouflaged, you see.”

“His own men, disguised as outlaws!” I broke in. “Americans—all of them. Coming to the rescue of Spence and Archer!”

“And incidentally, to the rescue of the Lorimer family, my dear. I had a word with Morrison. On the side. There isn't much happening in Mexico at the present moment that he doesn't know about. He has a little secret service bureau that is a peach. He had all the details about Jordan and Gene—down to their mock trial and sentence to death. He was awfully worried, for Mexican brigands have lately murdered two Americans not far from here.”

“Archer and Spence would certainly have been shot if I hadn't rescued them. It's too dreadful—”

“It's meant to be dreadful, my love. Whoever wants to stir up trouble between the United States and Mexico is playing big trumps, just now. Morrison knows. He decided that the revolutionists mustn't have a chance, so he raided the hacienda with his gang—as freebooters. It was a grand bluff. As soon as he had drawn off his forces—defeated for a time—the powers that rule, hereabouts, trapped me.”

“How, Bob?”

“How? You ask how? In the obvious way! That sly little maid of yours was sent to me to say that you had been found—that you had been hurt by a fall into a cellar—that you were calling for me!”

“Bob! How are we ever going to get away from this place?”

Bob looked around as if he thought the walls had ears. Then he whispered:

“Morrison will look out for that. He's coming back in a few days with a small army of his imitation soundrels!”

In park and eke, in public ground, the statues of the great are found: the landscape they enhance: how many wear a worried look: these heroes of the story book, I'm sure it is their pants. One seems to feel his braces skid, he trowns beneath his iron lid, discomfort fills his eyes; how, with no power to move a hand to clutch a slipping trouser band, can one look deep and wise! Another's knee department sags as if enclosed in gunny sacks, chagrin is on his face: what wonder that he seems distressed, he wants to go to have them pressed, but can't get off his base. King George may crease his up the side, but here the garment of man's pride is languid, loose and lank; the sculptor's skilled in stone festoons, but these, applied to pantaloons, make an effect that's rank. When I pass on and men erect a carved tribute of respect to grace the village square, I leave it to the artist mind what way my whiskers greet the wind and how my coat tails flare: some gifted son of Italy may mold the lineaments of me, my elbows and my shin, but when they reach my shapeless legs, my ante-mortem statement begs they'll call a tailor in.

FUJI BY MOONLIGHT IS WONDERFUL SIGHT MISS FORBES WRITES

Former Dixon Teacher
Continues Narrative of Oriental Trip.

Miss Forbes, former teacher in the North Dixon schools and guardian of the campfire, has written the following letters to the girls of the campfire of her trip to China where she is now doing Y. M. C. A. work:

Yes, we are now in sight of land (in our story). We have lost our dear old gulls which have been following us so faithfully. We kept them for about two days and they were so tame. I think it is interesting, the way they follow the boat.

As soon as we went around the point from Ft. Williams, we started to roll. The roll grew to a lurch and the lurch to a pitch. Before we were out a day this huge giant of the Pacific was tossing and bobbing like an eggshell in the massive waves. As I first looked at the "Empress of Russia" it seemed as if that huge mass could never tip but I changed my mind.

Nearly All Seasick

Most of the passengers were seasick. About one-third were ill all the way across. We were three of the five who were in the dining salon for every meal. We couldn't miss the fun. Our tables had walls around them and each person's place was sectioned off so he wouldn't lose his food. There were rings in which the glasses could fit and all of the dishes were made for rough weather. It was so rough one morning that my cabin mate upset in her chair at the breakfast table. We were not seasick once but the only things that kept us from being were fresh air, exercise, and food. Now maybe you can understand why we were not altogether lazy but rather prudent in spending our time as we did. We could not stay inside to write letters or we would have been ill and we could not write them outside on account of the spray and cold.

Roughest Trip in 2 Years

Officers said it had not been so rough all of the way for two years. But how we enjoyed it! Oh, the waves are simply wonderful. As the great swells come, twenty-five to thirty feet high, and then break; the spray dashes high and as the sun shines through that, it makes rainbows. I never saw so many in my life. The boat would rise at one end twenty to twenty-five feet and the other end would be way down low so that it looked as if the sea would fill it, then on we would go and the other end would be up. The deck chairs had to be tied to the railing and when we walked we had to hold to the railing. We were so covered with spray that our faces would be covered with salt when we went inside.

The first Sunday out was too rough for services, but our second Sunday out the captain read the English (Episcopal) service. The Union Jack was on a table upon which were placed candle sticks and the Bible. We all sang and developed quite a cathedral-like atmosphere. It is a great life. I love it.

FUJI By Moonlight

Land! Tel, 'twas a good sound even though I did enjoy every second of the trip. We came into sight of land in the afternoon. How we watched it and how we welcomed the gulls once more. But this time they were so small, not like our gulls, but tiny, just like the Japanese people. One of the ship's officers told us that if we were up early we could see Fuji by moonlight. That was all that was necessary. We were on deck at 3:30. Words fail! I have seen wonderful snow-capped mountains but God made only one Fuji! We had a perfect day, the atmosphere was so very clear that we could see the full outline and the snow, glistening in the moonlight. Below was the sleeping city, above, Orion. Soon in the opposite direction we could see faint colorings in the sky, soon deep orange and red with here and there streaks of black clouds, with the morning star bright and clear.

THE BOYS IN THE OTHER CAR

Gradually the light faded out of the stars and the moon and in the silent harbor we could see hundreds of little square-sail fishing boats. As soon as it was light these tiny boats started out for sea and were painted against the glow of the sunrise. As the colors brightened from the east, Fuji took on a deep rose tint. Soon the city awoke and while I had had all the thrills of dreamland, yet I did not have the grief of awakening, for I had not been asleep—it was all real, real!

Early Inspection
At seven o'clock the Japanese officials came on board for inspection. A general inspection was made, first of the crew, next of the coolies (the labor battalion from France) and finally of the passengers. It was very simple; we had to file past the doctors who merely glanced at us and were pronounced O. K. Of course, they had consulted the ship's doctor and examined more carefully any who were ill. The other officials examined all passports carefully. We were accepted and admitted to port.

No, we were not in China! But we were in the Orient. We could hear the clank, clank, of the little wooden shoes and could see the streets bright with gay-colored kimonos.

I'll continue telling you more of Japan in the next letter.

—and let us show you an exact duplicate of the epoch-making instrument which caused Dr. Finley to write it.

What Dr. Finley wrote:

"The influence of music upon the individual has been known since very early times. When an evil spirit came upon Saul, David was brought to play before him until he was well. I often think of Mr. Edison as a modern David, not out slaying Goliaths, but playing with varied instruments before the world, which seems, like Saul, to be possessed at times by an evil spirit."

Dr. John H. Finley

President of the University of the State of New York

was present and wrote this letter of appreciation on the occasion of the famous comparison-test at Albany.

6,000 teachers of New York State's public schools were gathered in the great State Armory at this test. On the platform stood Mario Laurenti, renowned baritone of the Metropolitan Opera Company. Beside Laurenti was an Official Laboratory Model of the New Edison.

Laurenti sang. Suddenly he ceased to sing. The New Edison took up his song alone.

Only by watching Laurenti's lips could the audience tell when he was singing and when the phonograph was RE-CREATING his voice.

To the spell-bound audience this marvelous performance meant a new era of music.

INDUSTRY'S NEED IS PROTECTION AGAINST STRIKES; TO ASK LAW

Speakers at Mississippi Valley Assn. Urge United Action.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
St. Louis, April 20.—Secretary of Commerce Alexander, in an address here today urged that industries of America be maintained at the highest rate of efficiency so that they may compete more aggressively for world trade. Capital and labor must co-operate, he asserted, to expand America's foreign commerce.

The secretary addressed the convention of the Mississippi Valley Association and urged the business men to develop South American trade.

"The time has come when our capacity for production exceeds all legitimate domestic needs," he declared "and we must depend upon foreign markets for the sale of our surplus products if we wish to avoid the slowing down of industry which would have serious effect on our economic and industrial life. We must not only maintain but increase our production. These are abnormal times. We cannot hope to increase production and diminish cost under existing conditions. It will be only by the fullest co-operation in industry between capital and labor that we can hope to develop our foreign trade, when we get the viewpoint that this is a national problem and that the solution de-

"JUST ONE" WILL ALWAYS DO IT

The New Idea Laxative that Never Wears Out—It's Different.

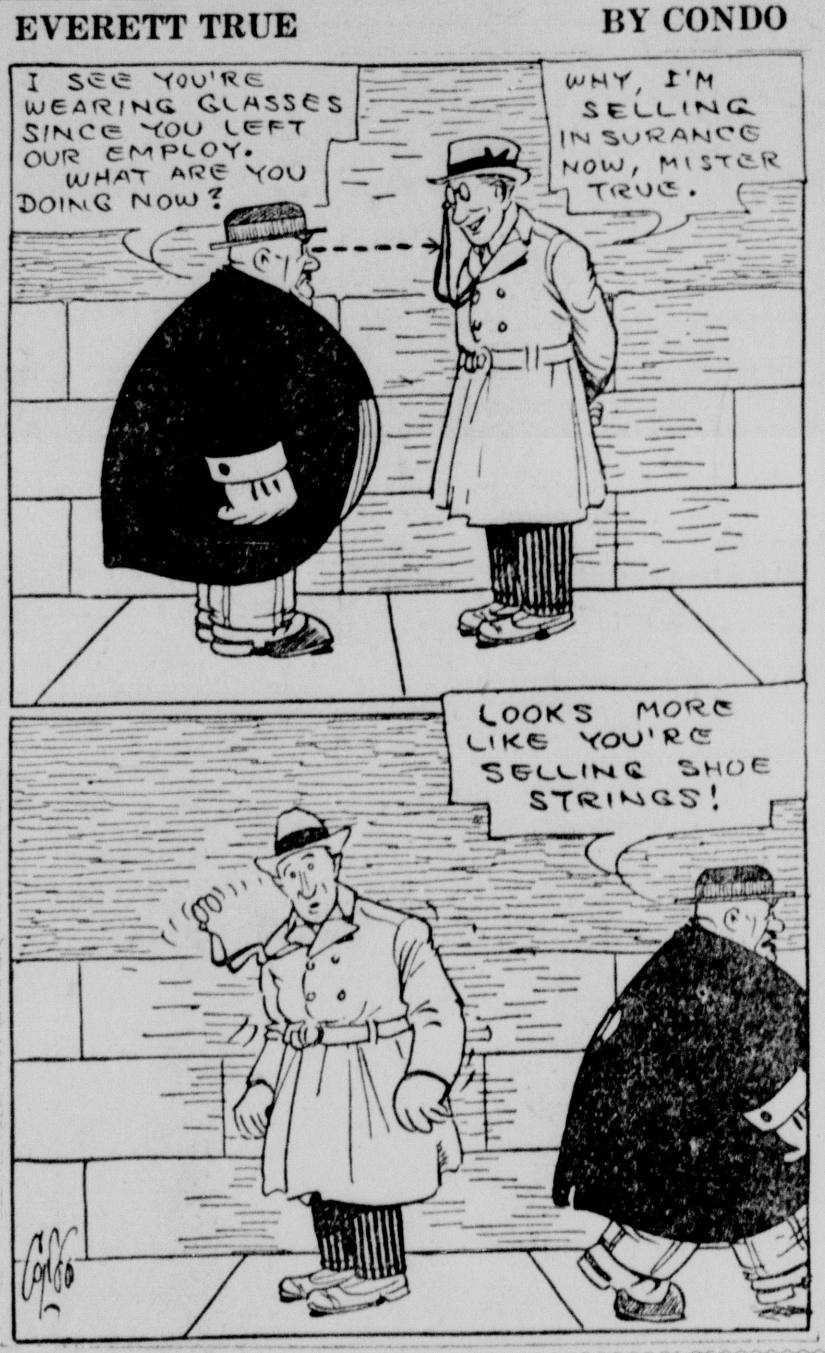

All old-style laxatives are headed for the discard now that "Just One" is here. Who wants to keep on changing from one brand to another as the effect of each wears out, when "Just One" never wears out.

Each of the 20 tablets in each box of "Just One" is the same size, shape and appearance but of different composition from the other 19. One tablet gets action by stirring up the sluggish liver, another does its work upon the lower bowel, etc., each a pleasant, thorough, dependable laxative of a different sort.

That's why "Just One" is the ideal laxative that never wears out. They don't "pick on" a single organ all the time, but keep all fit and vigorous. Your system can't become used to and unresponsive to "Just One," because each dose is a change.

See the point? Then get "Just One" today. Any druggist anywhere can get "Just One" for you or we will send it prepaid upon receipt of 25c per box. Ferritone Chemical Co., Council Bluffs, Iowa.

depends upon co-operation between employer and employees a long step forward will be taken toward its solution."

Protection Against Strikes

Pursuant of an aggressive foreign trade policy by the United States and enactment of federal legislation to guarantee industry against strikes, were advocated by speakers at the opening session of the convention here today.

The United States is producing far more than it needed for domestic consumption, it was asserted, and a foreign market must be found for this surplus.

Are Called "Criminal"

Federal legislation guaranteeing industry against strikes was demanded by Harry H. Merrick, president of the association. Mr. Merrick referred to the outlaw railroad strike and the recent steel and coal strikes as "criminal attempts to stop production" and insists that the resources of the 27 states in the Mississippi valley be coordinated to effect this legislation.

"We must pool our resources," he asserted, "so that only those favoring legislation against these criminal attempts to stop production would be elected to congress."

Keep Ships Ownership

Mr. Merrick declared the association should vigorously oppose the sale of "any portion of the United States shipping board fleet, to any but thorough Americans," and he advocated equalization of rates to allow gulf ports to compete with the North Atlantic gateways. One of the most important propositions he declared, for the consideration of the association is the "lakes to the ocean" project via the St. Lawrence river. By thus establishing a direct connection between the Gulf of Mexico and the port of New York, he said, shippers in the northwest would be greatly benefited.

Edward A. Biggs of Chicago, chairman of the foreign trade survey of the association was another speaker.

Fine Steels form the Sinews of a MAXWELL

Everything that is built to endure must have fine sinews.

A great ship, a giant locomotive, a huge bridge, a gigantic building.

Search for the sinews in a Maxwell and you discover new steels, fine steels, special steels, steels manufactured to Maxwell's own formulae.

Steels, for instance, that make possible that rare combination of extreme lightness and brute strength.

For a Maxwell is made to be light in weight. Its mission is economic transportation.

Any superfluous pound to carry around means so much more cost of operation.

But the great problem was to get steels of rare quality and great strength.

They are found in a Maxwell in axles, shaftings, gears, frame, crankshaft, connecting rods, etc., etc.

They equal, pound for pound, the steels to be found in any car made.

Costly as they are, they repay their price many times over in the lifetime of a Maxwell.

They save. They pay dividends of satisfaction.

They make friends. They are responsible for that rapid rise of Maxwell the world over.

Nearly 400,000 now in use; 100,000 more in process of construction; and fully 40 per cent of those who have decided upon a Maxwell as their first-choice car will not be able to get one this year—so overwhelming is the demand for this remarkable car.

PROFITEERS IN COMMODITIES OF ALL DESCRIPTIONS

Head of Investigators of Dept. of Justice Tells Facts.

New York, April 20.—A. W. Riley, chief of the "Flying Squadron" of the Department of Justice, whose campaign so far has resulted in the conviction of 107 profiteers with fines ranging from $50 to $2,500 and imprisonment from one day to two years, has uncovered a number of surprising commodities for which dealers are said to be asking exorbitant prices. Complaints of alleged "gouging" in almost everything from pickles to rouge and from lard to whiskey are being reported to Mr. Riley by New York consumers.

One man who had paid $1.15 to a restaurateur for a tiny steak and six small pieces of French fried potatoes, didn't stop to eat them but glancing at his check, took a newspaper he had been reading, wrapped up his "meal" and brought it to the Federal prosecutor.

Some of the letters of complaint were amusing, others pathetic. All, however, showed the seriousness of the present era of high prices. One indignant citizen wrote: "You ought to investigate"—a fish market in Brooklyn. He's a modern Jesse James. What do you think of 90 cents a pound for salmon and 60 cents for sea bass?"

The chief of the "Flying Squadron" has received complaints of such examples of alleged profiteering as follows:

Drug store whiskey at $5 a pint and $2 more for doctor's prescription; canary birds $20 to $25 and $3 to $18 for a cage; lemonade, served at a hotel dance and said to have been "weak," $1 a glass; rouge $1 to $3 a box for "imported" brands; that fish during Lent rose from 20 cents to $1 a pound in some New York markets; prunes, three for 10 cents in a popular restaurant; peanut oil, sold as "olive oil," $4 a quart; anthracite coal $15 instead of $9.50 a ton in Nyack, N. Y., because the miners were granted a wage increase of 50 cents a ton.

Consumers complain to Mr. Riley that they have to pay 50 cents a pound for the same brands of coffee that retailed for 21 cents a pound before the war and that wholesalers paid 11 cents a pound for some of these coffees three years ago and are now paying 15 cents. Milk they charge costs 10 cents a glass in restaurants which they buy it for 12 cents a quart; that they have to pay 25 cents for linen collars costing at wholesale $2.40 a dozen; pickles cost 6 cents each; cabbage 40 cents a head; 75 cents a bunch for asparagus and 35c a head for lettuce.

A young woman protested after having paid $3 for a bag at a department store "bargain sale" which, she discovered later, cost 75 cents to manufacture. She said that many big business houses were not satisfied with 100 percent profit but were making, in some cases, 150 to 200 percent. She suggested a "remedy" as follows:

"Do not buy anything in the first store you visit. Ask the price and, if it seems at all excessive, say you will not pay it and walk out. Then go next door and you may buy it for less. At any rate these profiteers need to know that the public is wise to them. A tremendous volume of refusals to buy would make such merchants realize they must stop overcharging if they would not precipitate a general business boycott."

Obviously the "Flying Squadron" is working with the utmost secrecy and names of complainants are withheld. Several big New York corporations, which have been accused of making unjustifiable profits on foodstuffs and clothing, are now reported under investigation. According to Mr. Riley, one convicted profiteer blamed the public for much of the high prices.

"It's so easy to get what you ask for," the merchant confided to the chief investigator, "that few business men can resist the temptation to raise prices. If I put two garments in my store window of exactly the same cut and material but with a $50 tag on one and a $55 tag on the other, most persons would buy the higher-priced one. It's a strange freak of human nature. People nowadays don't seem to concern themselves any more about what a thing costs."

Protests against profiteering are reported pouring into the Federal building here from all over the country.

When a complaint is received it is indexed and forwarded to Federal prosecutors and "flying squadrons" operating in the United States judicial territory where the victim resides. Investigation follows and, if the facts warrant, arrests are made. The campaign, initiated by Attorney General Palmer, will go on according to H. L. Van Sicker, in charge of the New York office for Mr. Riley, "until prices of food, clothing, fuel and feed for livestock are brought to more normal levels."

HOW A SICK DOCTOR REGAINED HIS HEALTH

Young doctor 27 years old was told by several eminent physicians that he could not live, but discovered a remarkable formula that restored his health.

In 1898 Dr. A. E. Reusing of Akron, Ohio, had just completed his course at medical college. He had paid his way through medical college by working nights as a telegrapher. Overwork and overstudy had undermined his health, and he consulted many specialists, but they all pronounced him incurable and said that he could live only a few months.

But Dr. Reusing determined that if he must die, he would find the cause, since none of the physicians could diagnose his disease positively.

Knowing that without oxygen the body dies, he began a thorough investigation of the effect of oxygen on the blood. He studied Prof. Virchow's famous "Cell Theory" which proves that the body is only a collection of cells and that there are twelve cell-salts that nourish and maintain the cells of the body. Just as a flower droops and dies for lack of water, so the cells wither and die for lack of their natural cell-salts.

He knew that the red blood cells carry the iron in the blood and that iron attracts oxygen just as a magnet attracts steel. He learned that by increasing the amount of iron in the blood, the iron attracted the oxygen from the air in the lungs into the blood exactly as the magnet attracts steel. He found that oxygen oxidizes or burns up the impurities, germs, and torn-down cells that are found in the blood.

Through careful research he learned the cell-salts that nature requires to feed the cells and maintain health. This led to the discovery that the health of the body is governed entirely by the health of the blood and that if the blood is rich in oxygen, plasma and iron, and supplied with the natural cell-salts that nourish and maintain the health, vigor and vitality of the cells, the whole body glows with health, strength and energy.

Relentlessly Dr. Reusing made his scientific researches and investigations until his efforts were crowned with success. He discovered a formula which combines the natural cell-salts that feed and nourish the cell of the tissues, nerves, fluids, brain and bones of the body and rapidly increases the supply of oxygen, iron and plasma of the red blood cells, which revitalize and rebuild the entire body.

This formula—discovered in a desperate effort to preserve his own life—proved so successful that he gradually restored his health and soon became strong and vigorous. Dr. Reusing is now 47 years old and his ruddy cheeks, bright eyes and vigorous health are irrefutable evidences of the strength-giving, blood-purifying, health-building properties of his formula.

For nearly 20 years Dr. Reusing has prescribed this formula for thousands of patients in his private practice with wonderful success. The medical profession has recognized its therapeutic value for the treatment of diseases.

So many people have been benefited and restored to health by Dr. Reusing's formula and he is so thoroughly convinced of its therapeutic action by thousands of case records in his own practice, that he has decided to supply this formula, which he has named "REOLO," to the public through registered druggists, who are licensed distributors of the Dr. A. E. Reusing Laboratories, Akron, Ohio.

Each package of "REOLO" contains 100 tasteless tablets, enough for two weeks treatment. It is not expensive. It only costs $1.00 a package and is positively guaranteed to give beneficial results or your money will be returned.

Reola is sold in Dixon by Sterling & Sterling, druggists, who are the licensed distributors.

The Importance of Refinement

IS recognized to-day by every woman and there is nothing that so detracts from her charm as superfluous hair. Especially is this noticeable at formal gatherings, calling for short-sleeved, low-necked gowns of dainty shiriness, when the effect of an exquisite costume is marred by the unsightly presence of hair upon arms or underarm.

HAIRGO Removes Hair Easily and Quickly

It is free from acids and harmful substances. The cork instead of the glass stopper is a sign of its non-corrosive character. Will not harm skin of the face or neck.

Less Than a Nickel a Week

This is all that Swift & Company's profit cost the average American family in 1919.

Here are the figures and authorities for them.

The average consumption of meat per person for a year is about 180 pounds (U. S. Government).

The average American family is 4 1/2 persons (U. S. Census).

Swift & Company's profit from all sources in 1919 averaged less than 1/4 cent per pound on all products including meat.

This averages for the family less than the price of—

1 cigar per week for father, or 1 street car fare per week for mother, or 1 package of gum per week for the children.

The complex service which we furnish the public is efficient and economical. The cost to the public in the shape of profit is too small to be noticeable in the family meat bill.
